About Daniel

Daniel Santana serves as a Broker at Allies Commercial Realty. He brings with him six years of experience in retail property management and leasing, with an additional 10 years of experience as the owner of a multi-unit retail chain.

His focus is on identifying and securing new opportunities in retail, office, and industrial spaces across Central Indiana. He is also responsible for supporting clients throughout the entire deal journey, ensuring smooth transactions from start to finish. Daniel's professional approach emphasizes fostering strong, long-term relationships with clients, while understanding their specific business needs.

Outside of work, Daniel enjoys spending time with his wife, Brooke, and their son, Andrew.
