Broker

Indianapolis Born, Client Focused,
and Built for the Long Game.

About Quinn

Quinn Willard is a commercial real estate broker with Allies Commercial Realty. A former four-year collegiate baseball player at Indiana Wesleyan University, Quinn brings a competitive mindset, disciplined work ethic, and team-first mentality to every client relationship.

With a background in sales, project management, and client advisory, Quinn approaches commercial real estate with both analytical precision and relational focus. His experience managing projects, analyzing performance metrics, and building long-term partnerships allows him to guide clients through complex transactions with clarity and confidence. Quinn is passionate about helping business owners and investors make strategic, well-informed decisions that position them for long-term growth.

Outside of work, Quinn enjoys following sports, especially the Minnesota Vikings and the St. Louis Cardinals, and staying active in the fitness world. His competitive spirit and commitment to excellence shape both his professional and personal life.
